

In The Marketplace

Villager 4: I'll have ten metres for my wife!

Wife: Oi! Don't be cheeky, you distant cousin of a gnat!

1 Off to market with my basket,
On my way.
Finest veggies, ripe and ready,
Here today.
Herbs and spices, all great prices,
Don't delay.
Another day in the marketplace.

2 Hustle, bustle, people shuffle
On their way.
Chitter, chatter, friendly natter,
Lots to say.
Buying, selling, there's no telling
What you'll pay.
Another day in the marketplace.

CHORUS *Everywhere you go
There are plenty of people passing through.
Some are sure to be out for a wallet or two!
Everywhere you go
There are plenty of treasures on display.
Just be sure to watch out as you go on your way!*

3 Eastern dancers, sounds of laughter
Fill the day.
Flutes and shakers, music-makers,
Hear them play.
Carpet-sellers, story-tellers,
Be amazed.
Another day in the marketplace.

CHORUS

Repeat verse 2
